Each destination has a number. Find where you want to go by looking up the name on the directory list. Next to it is its number and its path color. Look for that number along the colored path on the map to see where to go. If you need help, go to any information desk marked on the map by this symbol.

Thank you for choosing UF Health.