

TIMOTHY M. GOLDFARB, MHA
Executive Vice President for Regional and Governmental Affairs,
UF Health

TIMOTHY M. GOLDFARB, MHA, is executive vice president for regional and governmental affairs at UF Health.

Mr. Goldfarb joined UF Health Shands as chief executive officer in 2001 and transitioned to his current position in 2014. UF Health Shands is a private, not-for-profit health care system that is the primary health care affiliate of the University of Florida and its Health Science Center. UF Health Shands is among the most respected hospitals in the Southeastern United States.

His prior professional health care experience includes serving as the chief executive officer of the University Hospital, Oregon Health and Science University, and senior associate director, Arizona Medical Center.

Mr. Goldfarb has been active in a variety of professional organizations. He is chair of the Board of the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education. He has served as chair of both the ACGME Monitoring and Finance Committees. Mr. Goldfarb is chair of the Board of the Florida Teaching Hospital Council and the Safety Net Hospitals of Florida. He serves as a member of the board for America's Essential Hospitals (formerly National Association of Public Hospitals and Health Systems), the Florida Chamber of Commerce and the Florida Hospital Association. He is a former chair of the board of Council of Teaching Hospitals of the Association of American Medical Colleges, the University HealthSystem Consortium and both hospital associations in Oregon and Florida.

Mr. Goldfarb received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Arizona State University. He and his wife Laura have three daughters and four grandchildren.